

PRESS RELEASE

BOOK-SIGNING EVENT BY LOCAL AUTHOR IN WOKING TOWN CENTRE

Contact: Mark Barber (markb@project2067.com)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

My name is Mark Barber and I am the author of 'Project 2067: Urban Legends' (ISBN 1-4120-4546-0). I will be holding a book-signing event on Saturday, 10th December at the Arts & Crafts market by the Peacocks.

Following successful negotiations resulting in Ottakar's Bookstore in the Peacocks stocking my book, I have decided to hold an all day book-signing event. I will be holding this event at the Arts & Crafts Market (near the Peacocks) on Saturday, 10th December.

These limited first edition books will be signed and dated, and will be sold for only £10 (over 25% off the retail price of £13.50).

I will also hold a free to enter competition for kids with the winner receiving a big box of chocolates. I will also be giving away Project 2067 postcards and bookmarks.
